Re: Public Meeting of the of the Central Oregon Workforce Coordinating Council Steering Team

There will be a meeting of the Central Oregon Workforce Coordinating Council Steering Team on Wednesday, November 4, 2009. The meeting is scheduled from 9:30 to 11:00 AM at Central Oregon Intergovernmental Council, Board Room, 2363 SW Glacier Place, Redmond.

Agenda items include:

- Updates on Career Readiness Certificate implementation, and the Oregon Green Tech certificate
- Report on the Local Workforce Investment Board meeting, October 22 and 23
- Discussion of Workforce Coordinating Council structure, bylaw development, leadership and membership structures
- Update from the Oregon Employment Department Regional Economist

The Workforce Coordinating Council formed on July 1, 2009, as a successor to the disbanded Central Oregon Workforce Investment Board. The Council goals are to 1) Identify priority workforce development needs; 2) Align resources, strategies, and programs to create tailored solutions to the workforce challenges facing business and industry; and 3) Sustain a high quality workforce development system that is responsive to job seeker and business needs, via WorkSource Central Oregon
