

Central Oregon Regional Transit Master Plan RFP
Questions as of November 2, 2011

Q: Who has done transit planning work for COIC to date? Is any firm serving as an on-call consultant for COIC?

A: No one. This is our first formal transit planning process.

Q: The total budget is $235,000, with $125,000 available for the contracted/consultant work. Is the remaining $110,000 for COIC staff time on this project?

A: Yes, the remainder is for internal COIC staff time on the project.

Q: What is COIC's regional presence?

A: COIC has offices in LaPine, Bend, Redmond, Madras, and Prineville, and has Board members from and working relationships with all of the Central Oregon communities.
